BASEBALL AT KAMEHAMEHA LOOKING UP

School Team Will Be Picked
In a Few Days By Antone
Correa, 1915 Captain

The athletes at Kamehameha have started baseball practice and in a few days a series will be started with three teams—Blues, Reds and Whites. There are many candidates out every night trying for a place on the team. Antone Correa, captain of the baseball squad this year, is now able to play at his regular position at second base. Correa did not participate in the games last year on account of a broken leg. He was also missed on the football team. He will pick the men for the school team Tuesday afternoon after practice, as there will be but a short time before the regular interscholastic series begins, and the team men will need some time to work together.

Among the old standbys with the nine this year will be "Reliable" Hips. This lad has held down the backstop position for the last two years and has made a place on the team since 1912. This is his last year in school and he will be one of the athletes who will be much missed when school begins again next term. Hips has been the only real field athlete on the track team during the past three years, always making a place in the pole vault and high jump events.

Godfrey Bertelmann will no doubt make a place as he is covering first base very well in practice. Bertelmann has proved a good man with the stick also. Young Crabb, a graduate from the grammar school team, is trying hard for a position in the infield and prospects are bright for him. Crabb led the grammar team to victory last season. Joseph Pekelo will be the main twirler of the team this year and should make good as he proved to be a hard man to hit last season.

There are several other likely candidates for the team this year. A. Husey, Hips and Finnau are out for fielders while J. Cockett is working hard to get a chance in the box. He has showed great speed in practice but still lacks control. The old players who will be seen in uniform again will be K. Hips, catcher; J. Pekelo, pitcher; A. Correa (capt.), 2nd base; J. Makanaani, shortstop, and F. Shipman, fielder.

TRACK MEN ARE GETTING READY FOR NEXT MEET

The track men who are running in the Y. M. C. A. track meet next Saturday afternoon at Alexander Field are warming up their shoes every afternoon on the cinders and in the pits. Mills from Schofield was in the city yesterday and took occasion to don his track suit again. Mills is a powerful runner and works with apparently no effort. He is running for the Tigers this Saturday.

The walking race will bring two of the captains together in a contest which will parallel the one staged at the A. A. U. meet a few Saturdays ago. Gilbert Brown, who is captain of the D. A. C., is entered against W. H. Meinecke, who heads the Tigers. Meinecke was able to barely nose out a lead in the former race and Brown feels that he will have to go harder this time to win the event. Wichman & Co. are making the gold medal which is to go to the high point man. Ribbons are to be awarded to the winners of first, second and third event. A silver cup goes to the winning team. This makes an array of prizes which the men are going after.

The intermediate club will run its races at the same time as the seniors, but it is running independently so far as points are concerned. This department has just completed its decision. The winner of the decathlon and this track meet receive a handsome prize cup which is now in the trophy case at the association. A good set of officials is being secured to run the meet in prompt style. The first event is called for 1:30.

LAST NIGHT'S ALLEY CONTEST POSTPONED

The scheduled bowling match between the Signal Corps and Chamberlain's Colts was postponed until Friday week, the Signal Corps men not having returned from a practice march. Chamberlain would not take the match by default and readily agreed on the postponement. Tonight the P. B. C. and Cosmos clubs will meet on the "Y" drives in their third and final match of the season. Both clubs were going well last time out, and the match this evening should be a good one.

ALERTS AND 2ND INFANTRY WILL PLAY ONE GAME

There will be another meeting between the 2d Infantry and Alert basketball teams after all. However, no championship will hang on the result, it having been agreed between all parties to call the series a draw. However, the chance to make money for the relief fund, and also to decide possession of the cup, appealed to all hands. Both teams are out of training and practice, and neither side cares to play a championship series, but a single exhibition game appeals.

The game will be played at the armory some night next week to be announced later. An admission of 25 cents will be charged.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 8.—The Third Battalion found the Second fairly easy yesterday, when they took the latter into camp to the tune of 7 to 2.

The swats were about equal, but the Third Battalion pitchers managed to keep the knocks scattered. Also the leaders played a much tighter game in the field, committing only one error.

The bright spot in the Second Battalion performance was Waite's throw home in the seventh, when he made a double play from deep right. Score by innings:

There are so many places of interest and amusement for the children at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition that the visitor may have difficulty in deciding where to take the children first. One of the best educational exhibits, from a point of what the children will learn to say nothing of the grown-ups, is the scenic portrayal of what the Dominion of Canada has to offer the world. The Canadian pavilion contains huge panoramas portraying the scenic charms of the Dominion and exhibits of almost every item of commerce, agriculture, horticulture and mining within its vast expanse.

F-4 BENEFIT BASEBALL IS ON THE CARDS

Plans for the benefit ball game for the families of the F-4 victims, to be given by the City League next Sunday, are progressing smoothly. Indications are that a big crowd will be on hand at Mollitt field to see the service and civilian teams in action for the good cause. Incidentally, and aside from sentimental reasons for attending, the games should provide real baseball.

The first game will be between a picked city team and the Joseph Brothers, and will start at 1:15. The closer will bring together the Fort Armstrong team and a combined Fort Shafter-Navy team. It will be called at 3:15.

George Watson of Fort Shafter, secretary of the City League, told something about the proposed benefit game and about the new league at the Ad Club meeting yesterday. His talk had the ring of sincerity and made a hit with those present. He said in part: "The Honolulu City League," said Pvt. Watson, "is not playing baseball for profit, but for the love of the sport. Next Sunday we make our bow to the fans of Honolulu and we want you to come out and see us play. First, because we are going to turn our gate receipts over to the widows and the orphans of our comrades who lost their lives in the submarine F-4, and secondly because we are going to play baseball as it should be played."

"Our league will be different from the other leagues about Honolulu in that we will play more baseball and have less grumbling. We are going to run on to the field and we are going to run off the field and finish up our business in United States style. If we have any scraps to settle we'll do that after the game and where the fans won't be bothered."

"Clean, fast baseball for baseball's sake is the slogan of the Honolulu City League and we want to see you all there at Mollitt field next Sunday, for as I have said, it will be more baseball and less grumbling and the bigger the crowd the bigger the fund for those who depended on our comrades who so nobly gave up their lives in the interest of their country."

Capt. Statton and George Kettner will do the umpiring in Sunday's double-header. The lineup of the teams will be as follows:

City team—Dole or Thevenin, p.; Haneberg, c.; Eddie Fernandez, 1b.; Scharlin, 2b.; Rainy, 3b.; Carroll, ss.; P. Fernandez, lf.; M. Dias, cf., and O'Sullivan, rf.

Fort Armstrong—Lawson, p.; Sauer, c.; Larway, 1b.; Johnson, 2b.; Hundley, 3b.; Dumahot, ss.; Smith, lf.; Callahan, cf., and McTavish, rf.

DOES A FOOTBALL COACH HAVE TO BE LETTER MAN?

Since "Speedy" Rush, a man who never won his varsity letter on the football team at his college, has been named coach of the Princeton eleven the wise men of the game have been engaged in a discussion. "It can't be done," say some. "Coaching a prep school team and one of the big eleven of the country are far different propositions," insist others.

But it can be done, and the record of Bob Zuppke, who coached the Illinois football eleven so well that the team climbed to the crest of western football, proves it. He never played with a regular football team.

Zuppke attended Wisconsin university. He had football ambitions, but the coaches there looked him over, pronounced him too small for varsity purposes and shoved him off to the sidelines. Unable to help the varsity team with brawn, Zuppke decided to help it with his brain. From his position on the sidelines or on the scrub eleven he discovered errors in the coaching system and he discovered ways in which the team's efficiency might be increased.

Did Not Get Letter. Bolstering up courage one day Zuppke told the head coach of his findings. He didn't spout at Zuppke's suggestions. He accepted them because he saw at once they had weight—lots of weight. Zuppke in due course of time graduated, but he left college without a "W." He had helped the team with his brain, but not with brawn. And the brawn assistants were the ones who got the sweaters and the coveted letters.

After graduation Zuppke went to Muskegon and coached the team there into championship. His work was so good that Oak Park high school in Chicago, offered him a job as coach. The salary was a sizable one and Zuppke accepted. He developed a joke-looking team into a world beater among high school eleven. Not only that, but he developed a flock of mediocre players into stars of the first magnitude. Zuppke taught Gee, the great Dartmouth quarterback, the rudiments of football. He taught Pete Russell, the Chicago quarterback. He turned out Macomber, one of the best halfbacks in the West, and he turned out a score of others who since have made their marks in college football.

The success Zuppke scored at Oak Park high influenced the University of Illinois people to offer him a job there. There were some among the Illinois athletic authorities who were against giving Zuppke the job. He'd never played on a big college eleven, so they didn't think he knew much about coaching a college eleven. But the majority favored Zuppke's appointment. It was a mighty lucky thing for Illinois.

Zuppke went to Illinois when Illinois looked to have just as much chance to win the Western conference championship as the St. Louis Browns have of winning the 1915 world series. But Zuppke turned the trick.

Had a Motto. In his first speech to his new charges Zuppke said:

"Boys, we will have a motto, and that motto shall be, 'We don't get hurt.' And, in the second place, we will play along the theory that there isn't a football eleven in the world that can beat us. In the third place, boys, when you go against a team that outweighs you, don't worry. Use your brains. Where brawn and bulk are lacking brains will turn the trick."

The Illinois crowd got the spirit of the thing. They played with a "never-say-die" manner. They fought and fought and kept right on fighting, whether they were miles ahead or miles behind; and the result was that they won every game they played against the strongest, greatest teams in the West.

Whether that "We-won't-get-hurt" motto had anything to do with the fact that rarely in the course of the last season was an Illinois man on the injured list is a question. But on thing is certain: That motto kept the men from making any complaint. All of them tried to live up to the motto, outwardly at least. Injuries that would have sent ordinary football players to the sidelines were unnoticed by the Illinois players. They became stoics. Illinois' record was better than that of any team in the country; and that did not except Harvard. The Crimson eleven won seven games and was tied with two others. Illinois won every game it played. And the Illinois team was piloted by a man who never played football on a varsity college eleven.

And now you see why some folks insist that "Speedy" Rush can and will make good at Princeton.

ONE-HIT GAME GOES TO CO. C, 1ST INF.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 8.—Company C defeated Company H in a one-hit game yesterday, in the first contest of the series to settle the tie that resulted in the 1st Infantry League.

The final score was 2 to 0, but Company H has entered a protest on account of a claimed illegal decision by Umpire Rice in the seventh inning.

Lieut. Sadtler was invincible on the mound, allowing one pass, no hits and whiffing eleven batters. Judd made the only hit of the game when he lined out a two-sacker in the first period.

In the third inning Judd gained second on a grounder to third which Smith threw wild to first. He then stole third and home, bringing the spectators to their feet. In the eighth C Company again had a chance to root when Bennett drew a walk, took second on a pass ball, third on an error by Webb (who had replaced Smith at third) and scored on Boyle's sacrifice.

The feature of the game was the excellent pitching by both twirlers. "RUNNING THE BODY ENGINE" LECTURES WILL BE POPULAR

The lectures on "Running the Body-Engine," which are to be given at the Y. M. C. A., commencing next Tuesday evening, will take up two of the questions which interest every athlete. A man taking part in athletic competitions must both avoid sickness and try to follow training rules which will keep him in the best of condition. The subjects of these lectures have been chosen so that they will be of particular value to athletes. Dr. Hobdy will discuss in a popular way the fundamentals of physiology and hygiene and Prof. Andrews, in his lecture on "Mental Efficiency," will present his subject in a popular way. Athletes who want to know better how to keep in condition will find these lectures to be very valuable.

The subjects have been arranged so that the lectures will be a combination of physiology, anatomy and hygiene. The average man wants to know the essential things about these subjects and leaves the specialization to the physician. The talks on the "body-engine" will present this information in an understandable way. The course will be given on Tuesday nights in Cooke hall and consists of 12 lectures. The following committee of Y. M. C. A. members is promoting it: F. Baering, Wm. H. Meinecke, Roy Blackshear, J. E. Santos, W. A. Raseman, R. A. Robbins, P. H. G. Deverill, Geo. Cornes, Ah Towee Young, Goo Kwan and Geo. C. Kopa.

DECATHLON AT 'Y' HAS BEEN A BIG SUCCESS

Eighty-nine boys competed in the decathlon which has just been completed at the Y. M. C. A. These 89 boys ran each for his favorite club, and night after night has gone to the Y. M. C. A. to do his best in the ten events scheduled on the decathlon. Now that the races have all been run, a large chart has been made and the results compiled. The chart shows the Wellington Club at the head in Division A and the Lees winners of Division B. The Wellingtons have a total of 7149 points. They are closely pushed by the Websters, who have amassed over 6000 points.

Individual honors go to August Camacho with his 998 points, while Chong Loo of the Websters practically tied him with 990 points. Victor Kahn is only two points behind these two with his 988.

The ten events which the boys ran were the 50-yard dash, the 100, the 220, the broad jump, high jump, high dive, springboard high jump, hop-step-jump, the pull-up, and the shot put. The points were figured so that a boy winning 100 in any event was considered expert in that event. To reach 1000 points therefore indicates expertness in all ten events.

Chong Loo stands first in first prizes, having won the 100, the 220, the pull-up and tied for first in the 50-yard dash.

The events and winners follow: 50-yard dash—Decker, Morgan, Chong Loo, Yen Lum, 6:3.

100-yard dash—Chong Loo, 12:2. 220-yard dash—Chong Loo, 27:2.

Running broad jump—Kenneth Decker, 17 feet 7 inches.

High jump—Victor Kahn, 5 feet 1 inch.

Springboard high jump—Victor Kahn, 7 feet 2 inches.

High dive—John Moraes, 5 feet 6 inches.

Hop-step-jump—M. Kanehele, 24 feet 1 inch.

Shot put—Chong Loo—15 times.

Pull up—Kamekua, 34 feet 6 inches.

The following are the points won by the clubs:

PRESIDENT OF CHINA ASSISTS LOCAL PLAYERS

Gives $500 as Personal Contribution Toward Expenses of Honolulu All-Chinese Team

[By Latest Mail] SHANGHAI, March 11.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Shanghai Amateur Baseball League, held Friday afternoon at the office of the president, Mr. Thomas F. Cobbs, it was decided that the league will cooperate with the Far Eastern Athletic Association, to make baseball a notable feature of the Far Eastern Olympic games which will be held in Shanghai on next May 15-22.

It was also decided that the committee is strongly in favor of entering an All-Shanghai team in the open baseball championship at the Olympic games, although the final decision of this matter was left to the general annual meeting of the League, which will be held on next Friday, March 19.

Mr. E. Howard Crocker, National Y. M. C. A. secretary of physical education, who is acting as secretary for the Far Eastern Athletic Association in arranging the forthcoming Olympic games, and who has just returned from a trip to Manila and Hongkong to make arrangements, attended the meeting on Friday, and conferred with the Executive Committee.

$5000 Fund Required. Mr. Crocker stated that definite arrangements have been completed for the famous All-Chinese baseball team of Honolulu, which was so successful against the leading American College clubs on its tour of the United States last year, to come to Shanghai and take part in the series for the open baseball championship of the Far East. He said that the Honolulu team will arrive here on the Shinyo Maru, on May 14, and will remain in Shanghai about two weeks.

Fourteen players will be brought along, and a Chinese manager will accompany the club. The Chinese team will, after playing in the open championship here, visit Manila, where the Manila League has arranged a series of games for it, and afterwards will play a series in Japan, the expense of bringing this crack organization to Shanghai has been reduced to about $5000.

The executive committee of the local league assured Mr. Crocker of its intention to aid in raising this fund. President Yuan's interest.

Mr. Millard of the committee said that he had received a letter from President Yuan Shih-kai, stating the president's hearty approval of the effort to popularize baseball in China as a suitable outdoor sport for Chinese youth; and the president also sent his check for $500 as a personal contribution toward the expense of bringing out the All-Chinese baseball team from Honolulu, which he believes will do much to stimulate interest in the game among Chinese.

Mr. Millard was instructed, on behalf of the committee, to thank President Yuan Shih-kai for his appreciation and generous support.

Mr. Crocker also informed the committee that, when in Manila he made arrangements for two Philippine girls' baseball clubs to visit Shanghai during the Olympic games and give exhibitions, showing how the game (suitably adapted, of course) has become popular as a good exercise for young women.

Mr. Crocker reported that, so far, it is assured that these visiting teams will be available for the open baseball championship—Honolulu All-Chinese team, All-Star Japanese team from Tokyo, crack Philippine team from Manila. To those it is expected that an All-Navy team will be entered, and that an All-Shanghai team also will take the field. There is some talk also, of trying to secure an army team from Tientsin, making six altogether in the series.

One hundred thousands dollars will be distributed in prizes and premiums and as a result the greatest polo players from different parts of the world have been attracted. More than 500 polo ponies will be cared for.
